

Denise Parrott

May 19, 1953 - December 27, 2014

Denise Parrott was born on May 19, 1953 to the late Ella Bell Sutton in Indianapolis, IN.

She attended Public School #56, Arsenal Technical High School and Day Adult where she obtained her diploma. She later received her CNA license so that she could do what she loved to do, help people. She started working for the M.H.A. and retired from there after 27 years.

Denise enjoyed life! She was a happy, helpful, selfless, and caring person. She would help anyone in need and feed any soul that needed to be fed. She loved to play cards, cook, read books, go to parks and concerts, and play video games.

She accepted Christ as her savior and was an active and devoted member of Urban Light Community Church.

Denise was married on January 4, 1973 to Joseph B. Parrott who preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her memory, two sons, Eric Davis, Indianapolis, IN, and Ramon (LaTasha) Parrott Sr., Muncie, IN; a sister, Rachel Ware, Indianapolis, IN; two brothers, Dennis (Janice) Sutton and Rodney (Mary) Sutton, both of Indianapolis, IN; three grandsons, Kendrick Davis, Indianapolis, IN, Ramon Parrott Jr., and Kamreien Jackson, both of Muncie, IN; two granddaughters, RaQualta Ingram, and RaQuala (Pooh) Ingram, both of Indianapolis, IN; and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews. She will be missed by any and everyone who came in contact with her. She was preceded in death by her mother, Ella Sutton and her husband, Joseph Parrott Sr.

“ I love and miss you so much granny. I can not wait until im able to see your smile again, and hear your voice. We will be reunited again. You were the most caring person ive ever met. I thank you for allowing me to know what unconditional love felt like. Thats something so many people have never been able to experience. I love you! Past death and you know it Granny. You STILL mean the world to me!!!

“ Granny, it's not a day that has past that I have not thought about you. You were my life, my air, my everything! It's hard for me to manage without you, but I have to say you taught me well!... :) I miss you more than I can explain... Please continue to watch over me, guide and protect me.. Until we meet again.. Love you -Rara
